Traveling through several areas of Beaufort County, this enriching tour introduces you to the unique history and enduring culture of the Gullah Geechee people — descendants of West and Central Africans who were enslaved and brought to the coastal regions of the lower Atlantic states to work on rice, Sea Island cotton, and indigo plantations. Due to the isolation of these coastal plantations and barrier islands, the Gullah Geechee people preserved many of their African cultural traditions. These influences remain evident today in their cuisine, arts and crafts, spiritual practices, and in the Gullah language — a distinct Creole language spoken nowhere else in the world. As we explore Lady's Island, St. Helena Island, Hunting Island, and surrounding areas, you will take in scenic landscapes while learning the stories that define this rich cultural heritage. Highlights include a visit to the site of one of the nation's first schools for freed slaves, now a treasured National Historic Landmark, as well as the ruins of historic island churches where the past comes vividly to life through stories and song. Day 3: After breakfast we meet our step-on guide, change gears, and set out to explore a simpler way of life along the Amish Trail. We will travel through beautiful countryside while learning about the history, customs, and traditions of the Old Order Amish settlement. Throughout the day, you will enjoy many interesting sights, including Amish buggies traveling along the road at their comfortable pace of approximately 10 mph. Along the way, you will encounter a distinctive way of life grounded in faith, family, and community, intentionally separated from the modern world. The Amish are known not only for their culture, but also for their finely crafted handmade goods such as quilts, rugs, baked goods, jams, candy, furniture, baskets, woodworking, toys, leather goods, and more. Unlike some Amish communities in Ohio or Pennsylvania, there are no large all-inclusive Amish stores here. Instead, you will find small, individually owned Amish businesses marked by simple signs indicating what they sell. We will stop at an Amish Quilt Shop, a Bake Shop, and a Cheese Factory, where you will receive special goodie bags. A delicious lunch is included today at a local restaurant. After a full day of Amish country sightseeing, we return to our hotel to relax and freshen up before departing for an evening aboard the Chautauqua Belle. It is "All Aboard!" for a delightful dinner cruise on Chautauqua Lake. Enjoy a festive atmosphere and the fellowship of friends old and new while dining on a delicious dinner, all set against the panoramic views of beautiful Chautauqua Lake. (B, L, D)

Day 4: After breakfast we step back in time as we enjoy a guided tour of the world-famous Chautauqua Institution, a National Historic Landmark nestled along the shores of beautiful Chautauqua Lake. Our knowledgeable step-on guide will join us for a leisurely bus tour through the historic grounds while sharing the history, traditions, and unique way of life that make Chautauqua so special. As we travel through the charming, tree-lined streets, you will see Victorian homes, lecture halls, theaters, and the famous Amphitheater, the heart of the Institution. You will hear stories about the Chautauqua Movement, its cultural significance, and the many notable speakers, performers, and visitors who have spent time here over the years. There will be time to step off the coach to explore selected areas on foot, browse the quaint shops, or simply relax and take in the peaceful lakeside atmosphere before enjoying a delicious buffet lunch. After lunch, we depart for home with wonderful memories of rich history, beautiful landscapes, the extraordinary Amish community, and the laughter and friendship that made this tour so special — leaving everyone with a renewed appreciation for the magic that continues to make us all say, "I Love Lucy!" (B, L)

More than just a tourist site, the Corn Palace features intricate indoor and outdoor murals crafted entirely from corn and other grains and stands today as a vibrant community center and a tribute to South Dakota's rich agricultural heritage. We continue to Chamberlain, South Dakota to visit the Lewis and Clark Keelboat Center. Gunther TOURS

At the heart of every tour is a story—moments that inspire, connect, and stay with us long after our adventure ends. Don't just take our word for it—hear directly from the guests who experienced our tours firsthand. Their stories, smiles, and feedback inspire us to deliver exceptional experiences every step of the way.

I would like to thank Gunther Tours for a wonderful trip to Boston celebrating America's 250th Anniversary! Everything was very well organized, and we thoroughly enjoyed all the sightseeing, attractions, and historical experiences. A special thank-you to our bus driver, Greg Simmons, for providing a safe, smooth, and comfortable ride throughout the trip. We also want to recognize our Gunther Tours Manager, Robin Zahor, for being so friendly, helpful, organized, and attentive to everyone's needs. Both did an outstanding job making sure everything went smoothly and that everyone had an enjoyable experience. Their professionalism, teamwork, and dedication did not go unnoticed. Thank you for a memorable vacation! We look forward to traveling with Gunther Tours again!

Sincerely,
A Loyal Gunther Tours Traveler

This email is long overdue, but I wanted to reach out and thank you for the exceptional service, Gunther Tours provides. My husband and I have enjoyed many trips with your company and have visited places we likely would not have discovered otherwise. This past Saturday, we traveled to New York to see Shen Yun. Our tour guide, Julia, was a gem and did a terrific job. She kept the atmosphere fun and engaging, and everyone on the bus had a wonderful time. We had the best experience on this trip and look forward to traveling with Julia again soon.

Best regards,
Cindy Terry

I had the fortunate opportunity to go on the "Taste of Michigan" tour you offered this summer from 7/27/26 - 7/31/26. I am writing to say thank you for an extremely enjoyable and well-planned trip. Our tour guide, Robin Zahor, and our driver, James Brown, were extremely organized, professional, friendly, and accommodating throughout the entire trip. Robin went the extra mile to make sure all the passengers were comfortable and entertained, especially considering this trip involved a lot of drive time in the bus. She offered us snacks, games, and entertainment to not only make our trip more enjoyable, but also to make the time on the road pass effortlessly and quickly. Both Robin and James made sure that the entire group remained comfortable and safe during the duration of our trip. I really appreciated their kindness and professionalism and was so happy to have them be our hosts on this tour. You are lucky to have them as part of your team and as representatives of Gunther Tours. I look forward to making another Gunther Tours trip very soon and hope to have the opportunity to be paired with Robin and James again in the future.

With gratitude,
Danielle Jablonski
