3. All deposits are due within a 7 day period following your reservation. If deposits are not received within 7 days, your reservation will automatically be cancelled without notice.

5. Please note that we do not mail out any receipts. Your canceled check will be your receipt.

4. We do not rotate seats on any tours.
5. Those with physical handicaps do get preferred seating, but we must know at time of reservation.
6. We do sympathize with those who suffer from motion sickness, and there are too many to always accommodate, so please check with your doctor about medication and/or patches so that your trip is a pleasant one. You may also want to try Transderm Scop, or an over-the-counter product for motion sickness.

Meal Choices:

1. Meal choices are required on some tours. Please give your choice when making your reservation. If you do not give your choice upon booking, we will make the choice of chicken, if available, or a suitable choice as stated in the itinerary.

Cancellations/Refunds:

1. All money will be gladly refunded in full when cancellation is made 45 days prior to departure (which is the same as the balance due date). Any cancellation made after the 45 days will result in forfeiture of any amounts paid by the customer (no option of transferring the money paid onto another tour).
2. A $2.00 service charge for any cancellations unless you transfer to another tour.
3. We will make every effort to sell your seat, providing we have a waiting list.
4. Gunther Tours strongly suggests trip cancellation insurance. You can obtain an insurance brochure by calling the office; however, you will need to contact the insurance company direct for rates and information. See information under insurance.

Motor Coach Information:

Gunther Tours owns and operates the very best equipment for your traveling comfort. We offer reclining seats, air conditioning, lavatory, picture windows and public address systems.

It is assumed that all portions of the tour will be used by each individual. There will be no refunds for unused sightseeing, meals, or admission tickets.

1. We cannot assume any responsibility for any articles that are left on the coach at any time. Please check your seat and overhead space carefully for any items you may have purchased or brought with you before departing the coach.
2. Gunther Tours does have a "lost & found" where we will hold items left on the coach for 1 week. After that time, all items are sent to different shelters, etc, for the needy.

Insurance:

1. Gunther Tours carries standard liability insurance only.
2. We highly recommend that you get trip cancellation insurance on any overnight tour. You can tell the office to have a brochure mailed to you, but you will need to contact the insurance company direct for rates and information: Allianz Travel Insurance # 1-800-284-8300, and reference claim #F022404.
3. Be advised, some of our tours are of a strenuous nature requiring much walking. Check your itinerary. Again, we highly recommend you purchase insurance to avoid any monetary loss to you, in case of a cancelled or interrupted tour. Gunther Tours is not responsible in these cases.

"PORGY AND BESS" & Dinner at Harriet's Washington, D.C.

Travel today to our nation's capital, Washington, D.C., and spend a delightful afternoon with the Washington National Opera: "Porgy and Bess" at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Gershwin's quintessential American masterpiece melds jazz, folk, and gospel styles. It's "summertime, and the livin' is easy" in Catfish Row, a working-class fishing town in South Carolina. When a murder shakes the community and tempts the strong headed Bess to return to her drug-filled past, Porgy, a crippled beggar, becomes her unlikely refuge. As a hurricane descends and Bess's brutish old flame returns, she'll find herself torn between Porgy's steadfast love and the dark demons that tug her elsewhere. Often considered the first great American opera, "Porgy and Bess" soars with original music that blends jazz, gospel, and folk styles, from the gentle duet "Bess, You Is My Woman Now" to the instantly recognizable "Summertime" lullaby. Themes of community resilience, acceptance, and redemption weave through this poignant story, ultimately asking if even the most unwavering of loves can conquer the force of personal addiction. Travel today to our nation's capital, Washington, D.C., and spend a delightful afternoon with the cast of "To Kill a Mockingbird" at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Academy Award winner Aaron Sorkin has adapted Harper Lee's Pulitzer Prize-winning masterwork for the stage with spectacular, universally praised results, creating "a modern American classic" (The Hollywood Reporter) and the most coveted ticket of the Broadway season. Hailed by Jesse Green of The New York Times as "a Mockingbird for our moment – beautiful, elegiac, even exhilarating," Sorkin's work beats with a contemporary and altogether urgent pulse. With its unflinching and wholly relevant portrait of race relations and our criminal justice system, not to mention what might be the most indelible cast of characters ever to populate a work of theater, "To Kill a Mockingbird" is every bit as enthralling to audiences today as when Harper Lee's novel was published in 1960. Directed by Tony Award winner Bartlett Sher, Mockingbird has quickly become "one of the greatest plays in history". "A momentous event in the life of anyone who experiences it." – The Washington Post. "A great work of American theater." – The Philadelphia Inquirer. "All rise for the miracle that is To Kill a Mockingbird." – Rolling Stone. Note: "To Kill a Mockingbird" is recommended for ages 12 and older. After the show enjoy a delicious buffet dinner at Harriet's Family Restaurant. The Kennedy Center
"PORGY AND BESS"
& Dinner at Harriet's
Washington, D.C.

Travel today to our nation's capital, Washington, D.C., and spend a delightful afternoon with the Washington National Opera: "Porgy and Bess" at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Gershwin's quintessential American masterpiece melds jazz, folk, and gospel styles. It's "summertime, and the livin' is easy" in Catfish Row, a working-class fishing town in South Carolina. When a murder shakes the community and tempts the strong headed Bess to return to her drug-filled past, Porgy, a crippled beggar, becomes her unlikely refuge. As a hurricane descends and Bess's brutish old flame returns, she'll find herself torn between Porgy's steadfast love and the dark demons that tug her elsewhere. Often considered the first great American opera, "Porgy and Bess" soars with original music that blends jazz, gospel, and folk styles, from the gentle duet "Bess, You Is My Woman Now" to the instantly recognizable "Summertime" lullaby. Themes of community resilience, acceptance, and redemption weave through this poignant story, ultimately asking if even the most unwavering of loves can conquer the force of personal addiction. After the show enjoy a delicious buffet dinner at Harriet's Family Restaurant. A hidden gem located in the historic Harrington Hotel in downtown D.C., the restaurant offers its customers a relaxed family-friendly atmosphere away from the crowds of D.C. tourists. The Washington National Opera: "Porgy and Bess" is presented in the Kennedy Center's Opera House with Balcony Seats. (D)

Designated a National Monument by President Clinton in 2000, President Lincoln's Cottage served as Lincoln's family residence for a quarter of his presidency and is where he was living when he developed his Emancipation Proclamation. President Lincoln first visited the grounds three days after his inauguration and last rode out to the site the day before his assassination. While living at the Cottage for 13 months from June-November of 1862-1864, Lincoln regularly commuted to the White House daily by horseback or carriage, and enjoyed spending time with his family at this breeze-swept pastoral refuge where he met with Cabinet members, political allies and adversaries alike. A box lunch is included today. Please provide a meal choice when making your reservations. Your choices are Ham Club Wrap, Turkey Club Wrap, Chicken Salad Wrap or Veggie Wrap. Next, we'll visit one of Washington, D.C.'s hidden treasures, the Franciscan Monastery of the Holy Land in America. With its arched walkways, 15 miniature outdoor chapels and beautiful gardens it stands as an Oasis of Peace in the middle of busy Washington. The monastery was built in 1899 and many of the shrines are replicas of ones in Israel. We will tour the catacombs and pass through two gates that lead up to a replica of the room where the Romans would have held Christians before they were fed to the lions in the first century. The Byzantine crosses in the hall outside the gift store are especially intriguing. Note: The Franciscan Monastery tour includes a 45-minute guided walking tour and there are no benches to sit down. Please make sure you are an able walker before booking onto this trip. Wear comfortable walking shoes, (no heels). This tour is not suitable for people who have trouble with mobility! The Franciscan Monastery does not have an elevator and there are 21 steps down to the lower level of the tour and 35 steps up to the upper level where the tour originates. (L)

The Kennedy Center "TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD" & Dinner at Harriet's Washington, D.C.

Travel today to our nation's capital, Washington, D.C., and spend a delightful afternoon with the cast of "To Kill a Mockingbird" at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. With its unflinching and wholly relevant portrait of race relations and our criminal justice system, not to mention what might be the most indelible cast of characters ever to populate a work of theater, "To Kill a Mockingbird" is every bit as enthralling to audiences today as when Harper Lee's novel was published in 1960. Directed by Tony Award winner Bartlett Sher, Mockingbird has quickly become "one of the greatest plays in history". Eastern State Penitentiary and The Mutter Museum & Lunch at Jack's Firehouse Restaurant Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Today we travel to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, officially nicknamed the "City of Brotherly Love" in 1914, for a delicious lunch and a tour that guarantees a unique and interesting look into crime and punishment, and the study of medicine and education of physicians. Upon our arrival, we embark on an amazing tour at the Eastern State Penitentiary, once the most famous, and expensive prison in the world, for a guided walking tour. The first true "penitentiary," the prison was designed to encourage penitence or true regret in the hearts of prisoners. Our tour will highlight Eastern State's fascinating 142-year history, revolutionary architecture and notorious law-breaking inmates. Cellblock 12 is known for cackling and echoing voices, Cellblock 6 for shadowy figures darting along the walls, so you may wish to ask our guide if Eastern State Penitentiary is haunted? Also included as part of our tour are the central rotunda, restored cells, the solitary confinement yards, the baseball diamond, death row and Al Capone's Cell. Next, we enjoy a delicious lunch at Jack's Firehouse Restaurant. Please provide a meal choice when making your reservations. Your choices are Southern Style Pulled Pork Sandwich, Roasted Chicken, Pecan Coated Catfish or Vegetarian Pasta. Set in a 19th century firehouse in the Fairmount neighborhood of Philadelphia, Jack's Firehouse Restaurant offers a unique setting with an elegant old neighborhood feel. We conclude our day in the "City of Brotherly Love" with a visit to The Mutter Museum for a guided tour. The Mutter Museum was founded to educate future doctors about anatomy and human medical anomalies. Your tour will include over 20,000 unforgettable objects including fluid-preserved anatomical and pathological specimens, skeletal and dried specimens, medical instruments and apparatus, anatomical and pathological models, memorabilia of famous scientists and physicians, medical illustrations, photographs, prints, and portraits. In addition, they offer changing exhibits on a variety of medical and historical topics. Note: Please make sure you are an able walker before booking onto this trip. The Blennerhassett Museum became the first professionally operated, publicly funded museum of regional history in west/central West Virginia, and is a showcase of three floors of priceless history relics and objects of art from the Ohio Valley’s past. The Palladian style mansion was constructed and occupied by a wealthy Anglo-Irish couple, Harman and Margaret Blennerhassett in 1800. For a brief period, the home became famous as the largest, most beautiful private residence in the American West frontier. Regrettably, Harman and Margaret became entangled with Aaron Burr and fled their island home December 1806. The mansion burned to the ground in 1811, only to live on as a romantic legend. Then between 1984 – 1991 the State of West Virginia built a detailed replica on its original foundation. Once on the island, a Costumed guide will lead you through the reconstructed Blennerhassett Mansion where the family lived like kings and queens. After our guided tour of the Mansion, enjoy a box lunch and some free time exploring the island on your own and visiting the Friends of Blennerhassett Gift Shop. A 30-minute horse-drawn wagon ride showcases the island. After exploring the island and its history, we return to the “Island Belle” for the trip back to the mainland. Tonight, after dinner we will be entertained by Margaret Blennerhassett, as portrayed by a Costumed actor. An aristocrat, she entertained travelers to the Ohio Valley with dancing, music, and the readings of poetry at the Blennerhassett Mansion. Margaret Blennerhassett is acknowledged at West Virginia’s first poet, and credited with bringing a high level of culture to the Mid-Ohio Valley. (B, L, D)

Day 3: After breakfast, we are off to continue our exploration of “The Mountain State” before departing for home. Our first stop is at Holl’s Swiss Chocolatier in Vienna, West Virginia. Built upon the talents of three generations of classically trained Swiss chocolatiers, Holl’s uncompromising commitment to sourcing the finest ingredients and attention to detail in creating traditional Swiss chocolates will leave you wanting more. Browse, shop and enjoy delicious chocolate samples while learning the history of this small family-owned business. Next, we visit Henderson Hall Plantation in Williamstown, West Virginia. Built in 1859 as the centerpiece of the 2,600-acre plantation, it’s an impressive 17-room pre-Civil War mansion with all of its original furnishings. It survives today as a legacy of the Victorian and Edwardian eras. Henderson Hall is a living legacy to the pioneers and patriots who walked its halls through an unbroken chain of five generations. The house, grounds and Henderson family cemetery is designated the Henderson Hall Historic District and is listed on the National Registry of Historic Places. The house was built by George Washington Henderson the grandson of Scottish immigrants.

His grandfather, Alexander, who settled in Fairfax, Virginia, was friend, neighbor and pew mate of George Washington. Following lunch on your own we depart for home with fond memories of regional history of West Virginia, steamboats on the Ohio River, a historic mansion and its scandalous owners on “Eden” Island, an imposing plantation, and irresistible melt-in-your-mouth chocolates! (B)

The Creation and The Ark Kentucky

Day 1: Welcome Aboard! Settle back, relax and enjoy a leisurely drive to Kentucky, “The Bluegrass State” for the start of an exceptional tour of biblical proportions! After checking into the Holiday Inn Riverfront in Covington, Kentucky for the next three nights, we are treated to a delicious buffet dinner at the hotel. (D)

Day 2: After a buffet breakfast, we depart for Petersburg, Kentucky and The Creation Museum. The state-of-the-art 75,000-square-foot museum brings the pages of the Bible to life, casting its characters and animals in dynamic form and placing them in familiar settings. Adam and Eve live in the Garden of Eden. Children play and dinosaurs roam near Eden’s Rivers. The serpent coils cunningly in the Tree of the Knowledge of

Good and Evil. Majestic murals, great masterpieces brimming with pulsating colors and details, provide a backdrop for many of the settings. You’ll journey through a visual presentation of the history of the world, based on its 7 C’s of History: Creation, Corruption, Catastrophe, Confusion, Christ, Cross, and Consummation, where you will discover an interpretation of how science confirms biblical history. In addition to the Stargazer’s Planetarium and the dozens of informative videos throughout the Creation Museum, there are several more shows that you don’t want to miss, including: “The Last Adam,” “Six Days of Creation,” and “Men in White” (tickets are not included). Don’t miss a chance to explore the Botanical Gardens with a mile of walking paths, enjoy the wonders of God’s creation in the Petting Zoo and browse its extensive Gift Shop before we arrive at Noah’s Café for lunch. Following lunch, we return to our hotel for some time to sit, relax and freshen up before departing for the Queen City Riverboat. It’s “All Aboard!” for a celebration of fun and inspiration as we embark on our special Gospel Dinner Cruise. Enjoy a festive and fun atmosphere filled with good fellowship and harmonious melodies while you dine on a delicious buffet dinner served against spectacular views of Cincinnati’s skyline from the water. Come sing along, tap along, clap along and lift your voice to the heavens while enjoying the performance of many of your favorite gospel songs, including: “Put Your Hand in the Hand,” “How Great Thou Art,” “I Believe,” “You Will Never Walk Alone,” “Go Tell It On the Mountain” and many more. Following our dinner cruise, we return to our hotel for a good night’s sleep. (B, L, D)

Day 3: After a buffet breakfast, we depart for Williamstown, Kentucky and The Ark Encounter, a full-size Noah’s Ark experience built according to the dimensions given in the Bible. The largest wooden timber-framed structure in the world, The Ark Encounter is a one-of-a-kind historically themed attraction. Spanning 510 feet long, 85 feet wide, and 51 feet high, this modern engineering marvel will amaze the young and old. From the moment you step inside the Ark you will experience the pages of the Bible like never before and you’ll be entertained and educated by the jaw-dropping exhibits. Also enjoy a visit with the friendly animals in the zoo. Explore The Ark’s three levels – beginning with the first level depicting Before the Flood; the 2nd level depicting During the Flood; and conclude with the 3rd level depicting After the Flood. See hundreds of different displays including: Noah’s study, living quarters, cages, storage vessels, recreations of how Noah and his family may have lived, animals, and even an animatronics version of Noah that will answer your questions. There is so much to see and do that you will be left both amazed and awestruck by this one-of-a-kind-in-the-world structure! A tasty buffet lunch is included at Emzara’s Kitchen, adjacent to the Ark. After returning to our hotel you are free to design the rest of the day and do as you wish! You will have time to unwind and freshen up before this evening’s Manager’s Reception with free hot & cold appetizers, including drink vouchers (2 adult beverages or sodas). Tonight, take a stroll over to historic Main Strasse Village, conveniently located two blocks from the hotel. Dating back to before the Civil War, when the first homes were built in Covington’s west side, the area developed rapidly after that war, as large numbers of German and Irish immigrants-built homes and businesses here. Thanks to the vision of a local businessman in the 1970’s, the neighborhood has been revitalized into a storybook “German Village,” tourist destination, home to antique dealers, craft stores, and an eclectic variety of restaurants. Check out German themed gift shops, the Goose Girl Fountain, the Carroll Chimes, that on the hour display the Pied Piper of Hamelin, and upscale bars. The archipelago of islands was actually hilltops before the last ice age. Called “the beautiful sea rocks,” by the Mattabesec Indians, the Thimble Islands are formed of pink granite rocks, ledges, and outcroppings, and are estimated to number between 100 and 365 depending on how you differentiate between an island and a rocky outcropping. First discovered in 1614 by Adrien Block, these islands were used for everything from farming to quarrying granite, from bootlegging to hiding Captain Kidd’s treasure. Captain Kidd sailed here in 1665, and some people insist you can still feel his presence today. Today some of the wooded islands are topped with beautiful summer cottages built during the Victorian Era-complete with ginger bread trimmings. Following lunch on your own at the U.S.S. Chowder Pot, we depart for Essex, Connecticut for a 2-½ hour train and boat excursion. First, we board the Essex Steam Train for a ride through the picturesque countryside of the Connecticut River Valley. Next, we depart for the Cross Sound Ferry Docks in New London, Connecticut where we will embark on a 2- hour narrated Lights & Sights Cruise. Gain a new perspective on the history of Southern New England and Long Island area when our cruise parallels the mainland coastline out of the New London Harbor, and we view historic waterfront communities, military installations and lighthouses. Now home to the United States Coast Guard Academy, New London is the home port for the Coast Guard's tall ship, the Barque Eagle. See General Dynamic's Electric Boat Division. Also, see where the first nuclear powered submarine was built, and they continue to be built today . . . You might see one under construction, under repair, or underway. We view Fort Trumbull, which was built in 1777, and was attacked and captured by British forces under the command of the famed turncoat Benedict Arnold. Our cruise will also include making stops at different lighthouses, including the New London Harbor Light, the oldest lighthouse in Connecticut and the Long Beach Bar "Bug" Light – the pride of Long Island's East End Seaport Museum. Day 2: After a buffet breakfast, we depart for a day of West Virginia sightseeing. Our touring begins at the Historic Coal Camp & Mountain Homestead in Beckley. This morning we take a different type of rail trip. We will ride on a track through the dark passages of a vintage coal mine in an authentic "Man Car". At 1,500 feet beneath the surface, a veteran coal miner explains the history of low-seam coal mining, from the early days of mining to the modern era of mechanization. Back above ground you walk into a Coal Camp, learning of the time when the company owned the store, the church, schoolhouse and even the miner's homes. The coal miner's life was immortalized in song by Tennessee Ernie Ford – "You load sixteen tons, what do you get? Another day older and deeper in debt. St. Peter, don't you call me 'cause I can't go. I own my soul to the company store". Next, we visit Daniel Vineyards in Orchard, West Virginia for wine tasting and a self-guided tour of the vineyards. Founded in 1990, Daniel Vineyards is a family-owned and operated conservation grape farm and estate winery nestled in the beautiful Appalachian Mountains. Formerly a popular local golf course known as Twin Oaks, the 192-acre property boasts 30 acres of perfectly manicured West Virginia-grown grapes. Enjoy the beautiful scenery and exquisite wines that Daniel Vineyards has to offer. We end our day of touring in Daniels, West Virginia at The Resort of Glade Springs with a Culinary Cooking Class featuring a Culinary Cooking Demonstration and a buffet dinner. We return to our hotel for a good night's sleep. (B, D)

Day 3: After a buffet breakfast, we depart for White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia and The Greenbrier for a Bunker Tour. The secret is out for a must-see experience that takes you behind the scenes and walks you through a fascinating period in the resort's history! Step inside America's Secret Agent-Era Past! Exposed in 1992 by the Washington Post, the Bunker at The Greenbrier was one of America's most closely guarded

Cold War secrets. The vast underground relocation center for the U.S. Congress was in readiness from 1962-1992, complete with House and Senate chambers, dorms, power plant, clinic, cafeteria...even a decontamination area. Step through the 18-ton blast door to learn its secrets and how it was kept hidden for more than 30 years. Before departing for home, you will have time to visit The Greenbrier's distinctive shops and have lunch on your own in a local restaurant. As we head for home we conclude our fall foliage get-away with many fond memories of the Appalachian Mountains and a new appreciation for West Virginia's rich history, its people, coal country, the artisans, regional cuisine and unique West Virginia wines, and the secrets of the Bunker at The Greenbrier. The elegance of the Gilded Age is recreated as you tour three magnificent mansions – Marble House, The Elms Mansion, and The Breakers. The mansions will be beautifully decorated for the holidays with thousands of poinsettia plants, spectacular evergreens, trees, wreaths, and fresh flowers! We begin with Christmas at the Marble House. Built by Mr. William K. Vanderbilt as a birthday gift for his dynamic wife Alva, a leading hostess in Newport society who envisioned Marble House as her "temple to the arts" in America. The house contains 500,000 cubic feet of marble and a Chinese Tea House built on the seaside cliffs, where Alva hosted rallies for women's right to vote. Next enjoy a hot lunch, which is included, at a restaurant in downtown Newport. Following lunch, we will visit The Elms Mansion, a French-style chateau decorated in lavish Christmas holiday splendor. The summer retreat of coal magnate Charles Berwind of Philadelphia, The Elms contained every technological marvel of its time when constructed, and features monumental Venetian wall paintings and great tapestries. The elaborate Classical Revival gardens were recently restored and display marble and bronze sculptures. After checking into our waterfront hotel, the Newport Harbor Hotel and Marina for the night, dinner is on your own. Our accommodations are conveniently located in downtown Newport, and are within walking distance to shops, restaurants, and attractions along the waterfront. (B, L)

Day 4: After a buffet breakfast we visit The Breakers Mansion, all decked out in yuletide finery for the holidays. The grandest mansion in all of Newport is a symbol of the Vanderbilt family's social and financial preeminence in turn of the century America. Later we depart for home taking with us wonderful holiday memories of Nantucket Island's enchanting Christmas Stroll, and the magnificent glitter and sparkle of yuletide finery on display experienced at Newport's imposing stately mansions. Happy Holidays!
