NEW TOURS! 52

BAR HARBOR & ACADIAN NATIONAL PARK "Gateway to the Mountains & Cliffs"

Bar Harbor is a town on Mount Desert Island located on Maine's gorgeous Frenchman Bay. It serves as a gateway to the mountains and cliffs of neighboring Acadian National Park. Towering over the park, Cadillac Mountain has trails and views of the town, the bay, and the Cranberry Islands. From the town pier, the Shore Path winds along the bay overlooking the Atlantic Ocean and the Porcupine Islands. Acadian National Park landscape is marked by woodland, rocky beaches, and glacier-scoured granite peaks such as Cadillac Mountain, the highest point on the United States' East Coast. The area's native wildlife species range from beavers to black bears, moose to mink, and otters to coyotes. Also, a diverse variety of bird species can also be spotted, including peregrine falcons, bald eagles, songbirds, seabirds, and puffins and more. So, come with Gunther Tours to the bayside town of Bar Harbor, Maine, a popular gateway!

The Kennedy Center "Porgy and Bess" Washington, D.C.

Travel today to our nation's capital, Washington, D.C., and spend a delightful afternoon with the Washington National Opera: "Porgy and Bess" at The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Gershwin's quintessential American masterpiece melds jazz, folk, and gospel styles. It is "summertime, and the livin' is easy" in Catfish Row, a working-class fishing town in South Carolina. When a murder shakes the community and tempts the strong headed Bess to return to her drug-filled past, Porgy, a crippled beggar, becomes her unlikely refuge. As a hurricane descends and Bess's brutish old flame returns, she will find herself torn between Porgy's steadfast love and the dark demons that tug her elsewhere. Often considered the first great American opera, "Porgy and Bess" soars with original music that blends jazz, gospel, and folk styles, from the gentle duet "Bess, You Is My Woman Now" to the instantly recognizable "Summertime" lullaby. Themes of community resilience, acceptance, and redemption weave through this poignant story, ultimately asking if even the most unwavering of loves can conquer the force of personal addiction. Before the show enjoy a delicious lunch on your own at The KC Café located on the Kennedy Center's roof-level. The café offers a wide variety of menu choices ranging from hot and cold sandwiches, a salad bar, hot entrees including burgers and steaks, fruit cups, sweets, coffee, and wine and more. We will ride behind an 1868 replica of a 4-4-0 steam locomotive as it huffs, chugs, whistles, hoots, and rings its bell, traversing the original 1838 railroad bed on which President Lincoln's funeral train traveled on April 22, 1865. You will travel round trip in an 1848 Pioneer Coach or a mid-1860's Combine Car that will make its way along the rails, passing an original 1835 hand-cut and stacked stone wall, through woodlands with 250 to 350-year-old “witness” trees, that were there when the original funeral train passed through, past the restored 1844 Herr’s Mill Covered Bridge, and along Conoy Creek. A station stop at the restored 1844 Herr’s Mill Covered Bridge provides breathtaking views and photo ops of both the covered bridge as well as the cascading, boulder-lined Conoy Creek. The train continues to the end of the line where it will pull into a 235-foot-long, replica of a typical 1860’s-style Engine House where guests will disembark to enjoy a tour of the all-new Lincoln Funeral Train Museum and a narrated walk-through of the only ever built replica of the Lincoln Funeral Car, the “United States”. The funeral car is not handicap accessible. The “United States” rail car is a 2015 replica of the first private rail car originally built for President Lincoln in 1865. President Lincoln was scheduled to inspect the new coach on April 15, 1865, the day after he and Mary Todd attended Ford’s Theatre, but he never saw the car. Our train conductor will share the history of the Stone Gables Estate property, the Lincoln Funeral Train, The Star Barn Village, Ironstone Ranch, and the newest endeavor, The Barns of Belmont, which will house the National Christmas Center and more! A box lunch is included today. Please provide a meal choice when making your reservations. Your choices are Ham Wrap, Turkey Wrap or Veggie Wrap. Following lunch, enjoy a scenic tractor-pulled wagon ride around the grounds of the estate. Keep a watchful eye out for long-horn steers, horses, and the native wildlife including deer, turkey, rabbits, fox, and birds of all types. (L)

Riverside Dinner Theatre
"To Kill a Mockingbird" Fredericksburg, Virginia

Back by Popular Demand! Travel to Riverside Dinner Theatre in Fredericksburg, Virginia and spend an afternoon with the cast of “To Kill a Mockingbird”. Academy Award winner Aaron Sorkin has adapted Harper Lee’s Pulitzer Prize-winning masterwork for the stage with spectacular, universally praised results, creating “a modern American classic” (The Hollywood Reporter). Hailed by Jesse Green of The New York Times as “a Mockingbird for our moment – beautiful, elegiac, even exhilarating,” Sorkin’s work beats with a contemporary and altogether urgent pulse, which is an unflinching and relevant portrait of race relations and our criminal justice system, not to mention an indelible cast of characters. “To Kill a Mockingbird” is every bit as enthralling to audiences today as when Harper Lee’s novel was first published in 1960. Directed by Tony Award winner Bartlett Sher, Mockingbird has quickly become “one of the greatest plays in history”. Do not miss this opportunity to join Gunther Tours for what The Washington Post has hailed as “A momentous event in the life of anyone who experiences it”. Upon our arrival, enjoy some leisure time at Olde Mistick Village, a recreated picturesque 18th-century New England town with small independent shops, boutiques, restaurants and more. Following our visit, we travel to Middletown, Rhode Island, a suburb of Newport, where we spend the next three nights at the Wyndham Newport Hotel. Next, we will visit Rosecliff, for a self-guided audio tour. Commissioned by Nevada silver heiress Theresa Fair Oelrichs in 1899, architect Stanford White modeled this mansion after the Grand Trianon, the garden retreat of French Kings at Versailles. The magnificent ballroom, the largest in Newport, was the site of fabulous parties, including a fairy tale dinner and a party featuring famed magician Harry Houdini. Rosecliff has been the setting for several movies including "The Great Gatsby," "True Lies," "Amistad" and "27 Dresses". Next, we will enjoy a visit to the Brick Market Place for some shopping and lunch on your own. Containing over twenty-five unique shops and eateries, Brick Market Place includes three parallel rows of businesses offering everything you could dream of from Fashion to Shoes to handmade Gifts and Souvenirs. It took nineteen days to move it to its new location. Later you will have some leisure time to explore the shops and restaurants along the main streets in Old Harbor, before we re-board the ferry and cruise back to the mainland. Travel with Gunther Tours to the quaint Victorian town of Jim Thorpe, Pennsylvania, nestled in the breathtaking Lehigh River Gorge. Jim Thorpe has been called the "Switzerland of America" due to the picturesque scenery, mountainous location, and architecture. Also known as the "Gateway to the Poconos," the town has a fascinating history of romance, struggle, survival, boom, bust and revival. Originally named Mauch Chunk, during the Victorian era the town was second only to Niagara Falls as the most visited tourist destination. In 1953 following the death of renowned athlete and Olympic medal winner Jim Thorpe, the struggling town decided to memorialize and adopted the name of Jim Thorpe. A member of the Sac and Fox Nation from Oklahoma, he began his legendary sports career as a student at the Carlisle Indian Industrial School in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and later he would become one of the greatest athletics of all time, breaking racial barriers in the process. We begin our day in the Pocono Mountains with a delicious buffet lunch at Macaluso's Restaurant. Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre The Karen Carpenter Tribute Show Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Travel to Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre in Lancaster, Pennsylvania to see a matinee performance of The Karen Carpenter Tribute Show starring Chloe Foston. The popular singing duo of the 1970's and early 80's focused on mid-tempo pop and ballads with Karen Carpenter's unique and expressive alto voice on lead vocals. The distinctively soft musical style they created made the brother-sister duo phenomenally successful, and with more than one hundred million records sold worldwide, making them one of the best-selling music artists of all time. An accomplished keyboard player, composer and arranger, Richard Carpenter was a key creative force behind the Carpenters sound. Background vocals by Karen and Richard Carpenter produced densely layered harmonies, an integral part of their signature sound. In this heartfelt tribute show, Chloe Foston, masterfully reproduces Karen's unique voice while performing Carpenter's hits like "We've Only Just Begun," "Top of the World," "Close to You," and "Rainy Days and Mondays" to name just a few.
